OLDER NISEI CONFERENCE

THEME: "NISEI ACTION, TODAY AND TOMORROW"
Friday, March 2 to Sunday, March 4, 1945.

Coming: DR. SHERWOOD EDDY, internationally known YMCA leader, author of many religious books, lecturer, and world-wide traveller will be here next Sunday.

BILL HOSOKAWA, former editor-in-chief of the Heart Mountain Sentinel, columnist of the Pacific Citizen and staff member of the influential Des Moines Register, will arrive from the Iowa city this coming Saturday.

The REV. JAMES SUGIOKA is working together with Dr. J. B. Hunter at the national headquarters of the Disciples of Christ churches. As field worker, he contacts and aids the resettlers. He recently returned from conferences in San Francisco and Los Angeles.

Plan to attend this conference: Discussions on "Nisei and economics, politics, religion, marriage, vocational opportunities" and other vital subjects will be studied. Luncheon, special music, and fellowship will be featured. Watch the OUTPOST for latest news and programs.

George Kaneko, local YMCA co-ordinator is the general chairman of the conference.

You'll want to hear Miss Florence Zabawski tonight. She comes to us with years of experience as social worker for the Chicago Welfare Administration. She handled juvenile delinquincy and medical care cases. She will bring news concerning the world-famed Jane Addams' Hull House. Being of Polish descent, Miss Zabawski is familiar with the Windy City's "Little Poland", and will tell us about it. Hear about the National Catholic Church. This program is sponsored by the YPCF. Remember to bring your soldier friends, too, at 7:30.

Mary Ige will lead the high school students' group this evening. The pertinent subject of "How To Be A Christian In The Block" will be open for frank discussion. What are the opportunities and challenges? Share your views and suggestions. Joan Ziegler will be in charge of singspiration, which will start at 7:30 p.m.

APPRECIATION

Walter Saito of Ann Arbor, Michigan, for monthly pledges.
George Mochizuki, thank offering upon the occasion of baptism.
American Bible Society for various literature.
Sadaca Kuratomi, Mrs. Garrott, and choir members for their faithful turnout at practices every Tuesday night--"in all kinds of weather".
Miyoko Masada, for her efficient work as treasurer.

WEDDING

We are happy to announce that Akiko Ishimaru, formerly of Block 24, and now of Chicago united in marriage to George Sakamoto on February 10, 1945. The ceremony was officiated by the Rev. Jitsuo Morikawa at the First Baptist Church. With their many friends, we join in extending felicitations upon this joyful occasion. They are making their home at 4250 S. Drexel Blvd., Chicago, Illinois.
